Nowhere else in Italy is the art of making pasta so perfected as in Emilia. An ordinary housewife, in half an hour, can make enough taglierini, a kind of pasta, for a dozen people. With eggs and flour and just a drop of water she makes the dough. With a long rolling pin, she presses it out into circular sheets, paper thin. She then cuts it into ribbons a quarter of an inch in width. In Rome this pasta is called fettucine, and is boiled and drained like spaghetti, and served swimming in butter and melted cheese. In Emilia, they prefer it served with; a sauce of meat, tomato, herbs and mushrooms. In Genoa, the same pasta, made in exactly the same way, is served all pesto — with an uncooked sauce of garlic, herbs and olive oil.

39- Housewives in Emilia ...........
   A) usually make the pasta special to their town
   B) make the most economical pasta in Italy
   C) usually cook for twelve or more people
   D) make most of the pasta produced in Italy
   E) are the best at making pasta in Italy

40- Clearly, in Rome, people ............
   A) prefer Jettucine to taglierini
   B) enjoy eating pasta with dairy products
   C) would rather eat spaghetti than Jettucine
   D) like to eat pasta on the riverbanks
   E) cook/jettucine in butter, not in water

41- From what the author says about taglierini and at pesto, we can understand that ...........
   A) they are cooked in different ways
   B) the people in Genoa eat much less pasta
   C) the Genoans generally use more herbs in cooking
   D) they are the same pasta with different names
   E) the people from Emilia like a thicker sauce

42-44. soruları aşağıdadaki parçaya göre cevaplayınız.

All contact lenses are now made of plastic, but hard and soft varieties are available. The newer and more expensive soft lenses can be bent and will return to their original shape. Made of water-absorbing plastic, they cause very little discomfort and can be worn for as short or as long a period as you like. Lenses of hard plastic do cause discomfort during the adjustment period and must be worn regularly so that another break-in period isn't necessary. However, vision through soft contacts isn't as good as through hard contacts. Another disadvantage of soft lenses is their tendency to absorb eye secretions and mists from hair spray, room deodorant and the like.

42- One advantage soft contact lenses have over hard ones is that they
   A) are made of natural products
   B) are completely flexible
   C) correct short-sightedness
   D) aren't as expensive
   E) come in two varieties

43- We learn from the passage that hard plastic lenses ..........
   A) are water absorbent
   B) must not be worn too often
   C) are initially uncomfortable
   D) may break if dropped
   E) do not provide clear vision
44- We can conclude from the passage that a person wearing soft plastic lenses ........
A) ought to use them for short periods
B) has to get them adjusted by the optician
C) won't have any difficulty seeing clearly
D) should avoid using aerosol sprays
E) doesn't need to have them checked frequently

45- We understand from, the passage that a race ........
A) has become a branch of biology in modern times
B) is a characteristic that is learnt rather than inherited
C) is a large group of people who are physically similar
D) is the general term which means physical appearance
E) refers to social status of people rather than physical features

46- It is clear from the passage that ...... .
A) skin colour is the only reliable determining factor in classifying races
B) a common way of classifying races is inadequate
C) many people in India are actually Negroid D) it is always obvious which race a particular person belongs to E) pure races present no problems to the biologist

47- One idea emphasized in the passage is that ........ .
A) some races are superior to others

C) biological classification of the human species has some drawbacks
D) a new classification of races should be developed
E) it is more difficult to classify races as it would seem at first sight

48- It is clear from the passage that ...... .
A) aggression is not acceptable according to moral values
B) women hide their natural aggression, but it can easily be brought out
C) boxing can stimulate the potential aggression in women
D) it generally pays to be aggressive
E) the most respected jobs are also the best paid

49- One conclusion we can derive from the passage is that women ........ .
A) have to fight the prejudice held against them in society
B) should not be employed in extremely competitive sectors
C) have already taken part in science and industry despite their lack of aggression
D) are less successful than man even at school
E) are presently at a disadvantage when it comes to getting the top jobs
We can conclude from the passage that .......

A) there would be fewer wars if science and industry were controlled by women
B) science and industry would benefit by hiring less aggressive people
C) people can be trained to be competitive
D) women in general find working in science and industry unpleasant
E) boxing is not popular among women because it is too competitive

As a biological concept, race refers to a large group of people who share certain inherited physical characteristics. These characteristics may include particular skin colour, head shape, hair type, nose shape or blood type. One common classification of races recognizes three groups: Caucasoid, Mongoloid and Negroid, all of whom have different coloured skin and other differing characteristics. However, there are at least two important problems with such a classification of races. First, some groups fit into none of these categories, like people of the Indian subcontinent who have Caucasoid features but dark skin. The other problem is that, with so many intermarriages, there are no pure races today.

D) a new classification of races should be developed
E) it is more difficult to classify races as it would seem at first sight

In the world we live in, the aggressive person, the one who is forceful in his or her demands, is usually the one who gets the biggest salary and the best job. Since men are traditionally trained from an early age to be aggressive, they are the ones most often picked for the most important positions. Many people criticise this situation, and feel that women have an equal contribution to make in science and industry. Some have gone so far as to suggest that girls should be given aggression lessons in school. This does not mean that every little girl should take boxing lessons. One suggestion is for games that teach competition.

42. It is clear from the passage that .......
A) aggression is not acceptable according to moral values
B) women hide their natural aggression, but it can easily be brought out
C) boxing can stimulate the potential aggression in women
D) it generally pays to be aggressive
E) the most respected jobs are also the best paid

43. One conclusion we can derive from the passage is that women .........
A) have to fight the prejudice held against them in society
B) should not be employed in extremely competitive sectors
C) have already taken part in science and industry despite their lack of aggression
D) are less successful than man even at school
E) are presently at a disadvantage when it comes to getting the top jobs

44- We can conclude from the passage that ........ .
A) there would be fewer wars if science and industry were controlled by women
B) science and industry would benefit by hiring less aggressive people
C) people can be trained to be competitive
D) women in general find working in science and industry unpleasant
E) boxing is not popular among women because it is too competitive

Nowhere else in Italy is the art of making pasta so perfected as in Emilia. An ordinary housewife, in half an hour, can make enough laglierini, a kind of pasta, for a dozen people. With eggs and flour and just a drop of water she makes the dough. With a long rolling pin, she presses it out into circular sheets, paper thin. She then cuts it into ribbons a quarter of an inch in width. In Rome this pasta is called fettucine, and is boiled and drained like spaghetti, and served swimming in butter and melted cheese. In Emilia, they prefer it served will; a sauce of meat, tomato, herbs and mushrooms. In Genoa, the same pasta, made in exactly the same way, is served al pesto — with an uncooked sauce of garlic, herbs and olive oil.

45- Housewives in Emilia ........ .
A) usually make the pasta special to their town
B) make the most economical pasta in Italy
C) usually cook for twelve or more people
D) make most of the pasta produced in Italy
E) are the best at making pasta in Italy

46- Clearly, in Rome, people ........ .
A) prefer fettucine to taglierini
B) enjoy eating pasta with dairy products
C) would rather eat spaghetti than fettucine
D) like to eat pasta on the riverbanks
E) cook fettucine in butter, not in water

47- From what the author says about taglierini and at pesto, we can understand that ........ .
A) they are cooked in different ways
B) the people in Genoa eat much less pasta
C) the Genoans generally use more herbs in cooking
D) they are the same pasta with different names
E) the people from Emilia like a thicker sauce

All contact lenses are now made of plastic, but hard and soft varieties are available. The newer and more expensive soft lenses can be bent and will return to their original shape. Made of water-absorbing plastic, they cause very little discomfort and can be worn for as short or as long a period as you like. Lenses of hard plastic do cause discomfort during the adjustment period and must be worn regularly so that another break-in period isn't necessary. However, vision through soft contacts isn't as good as through hard contacts. Another disadvantage of soft lenses is their tendency to absorb eye secretions and mists from hair spray, room deodorant and the like.

48- One advantage soft contact lenses have over hard ones is that they
A) are made of natural products
B) are completely flexible
C) correct short-sightedness
D) aren't as expensive
E) come in two varieties

49- We learn from the passage that hard plastic lenses ........ .
A) are water absorbent
B) must not be worn too often
C) are initially uncomfortable
D) may break if dropped
E) do not provide clear vision

50- We can conclude from the passage that a person wearing soft plastic lenses ........ .
A) ought to use them for short periods
B) has to get them adjusted by the optician
C) won't have any difficulty seeing clearly
D) should avoid using aerosol sprays
E) doesn't need to have them checked frequently
